Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 254, as it passed the Senate, revised and recast specified provisions governing the possession and control of state highways.

The Assembly amendments delete the contents of the bill and instead call a special election to be consolidated with the November 8, 2016, statewide general election, at which the Secretary of State must submit to the voters a voter instruction asking whether California's elected officials should use all of their constitutional authority, including proposing and ratifying one or more amendments to the United States Constitution, to overturn Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission (2010) 558 U.S. 310, and other applicable judicial precedents, as specified. The amendments require the Secretary of State to communicate the results of this election to the Congress of the United States.
