S.B. No. 1038—Leno et al.

An act relating to juveniles.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1038, as it passed the Senate, authorized a judge of a juvenile court to dismiss the petition, or to set aside the findings and dismiss the petition, of a minor within the jurisdiction of the court, if the court finds that the interests of justice and the welfare of the minor require that dismissal, or if it finds that the minor is not in need of treatment or rehabilitation.

The Assembly amendments instead authorize a judge of the juvenile court to dismiss a petition, or to set aside the findings and dismiss the petition, if the court finds that the interests of justice and the welfare of the person who is the subject of the petition require that dismissal, or if it finds that he or she is not in need of treatment or rehabilitation, regardless of whether the person who is the subject of the petition is, at the time of the order, a ward or dependent child of the court. The amendments also provide that the court is not required to maintain jurisdiction over a person who is the subject of a petition between the time the court's jurisdiction over that person terminates and the point at which his or her petition is dismissed.
