An act relating to recycling.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1274, as it passed the Senate, required on or before July 1, 2017, and annually thereafter, an operator of a solid waste facility or operation to report to the Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery, if requested, regarding the number of used mattresses received by that facility that were recycled, renovated, or disposed of within the state, as provided. The bill defined “solid waste facility” as that defined under existing law.

The Assembly amendments require on or before May 1, 2017, and annually thereafter, the operator to report to the department and to the mattress recycling organization regarding the number of used mattresses received by that facility or operation that were recycled, renovated, or disposed of within the state, as provided. The assembly amendments also define “solid waste facility” as that defined under existing law and that accepts used mattresses from the public, as provided. The Assembly amendments also require, on or after May 1, 2017, and annually thereafter a person who is engaged in business as a recycler or renovator to submit to the department and to the mattress recycling organization a report that includes specified information.

S.B. No. 610—Jackson.

An act relating to franchises.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 610, as it passed the Senate, amended the California Franchise Relations Act to require franchisors, subfranchisors, and franchisees to deal with each other in good faith, as defined, and prohibited a franchisor or subfranchisor from restricting the right of a franchisee to join or participate in an association of franchisees to the extent the restriction is prohibited by existing law. SB 610, as it passed the Senate, authorized a franchisee to bring an action for damages or other appropriate relief against a franchisor or a subfranchisor who violates these provisions and authorized a liable franchisor or subfranchisor to recover contributions from any other similarly liable persons.

The Assembly amendments remove the requirement that franchisors, subfranchisors, and franchisees deal with each other in good faith and instead provide that any condition requiring a franchisee to waive the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing is void. The Assembly amendments prohibit a franchise agreement from preventing a franchisee from selling a franchise to another qualified person. The Assembly amendments also prohibit a franchise agreement from giving a franchisee the right to sell the franchise without the consent of the franchisor unless the consent is unreasonably withheld and from relieving the franchisee of the duty to notify the franchisor of the franchisee’s decision to sell the franchise. The Assembly amendments prohibit a franchisor’s early termination of an agreement, unless the franchisee failed to cure a substantial and material breach for 30 days. The Assembly amendments authorize a franchisee to decide between two specified remedies from a franchisor that unlawfully terminates or fails to allow the sale of a franchise.

S.B. No. 712—Lara.

An act relating to hazardous materials.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 712, as it passed the Senate, required the Department of Toxic Substances Control, on or December 31, 2015, to take final action on an application for a hazardous waste facility permit that is submitted by a facility operating under a grant of interim status on or before January 1, 1986, and terminated the grant of interim status for such a facility on December 31, 2015, or on the date on which the department takes final action on the application, whichever is earlier.

The Assembly amendments instead require the department to issue a final permit decision on an application for such a facility on or before December 31, 2015, and provide that if a person petitions the department for review of a final permit decision to approve a hazardous waste facilities permit or a facility currently operating under interim status, then the interim status would not terminate until final administrative disposition of the petition, even if the disposition occurs after December 31, 2015.

S.B. No. 1087—Monning et al.

An act relating to farm labor contractors, and making an appropriation therefor.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, prohibited a license to operate as a farm labor contractor from being granted to a person who, within the preceding 3 years, has been found by a court or an administrative agency to have committed sexual harassment of an employee, or who, within the preceding 3 years, employed any supervisory employee whom he or she knew or should have known has been found by a court or an administrative agency, within the preceding 3 years of his or her employment with the applicant, to have committed sexual harassment of an employee. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, authorized the Labor Commissioner to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a farm labor contractor's license if the licensee has been found by a court or an administrative agency to have committed sexual harassment of an employee, or have employed a supervisory employee whom he or she knew or should have known has been found by a court or an administrative agency, within the preceding 3 years, to have committed sexual harassment of an employee. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, increased the fee for a license to operate as a farm labor contractor from $500 to $600, and required the amount attributable to the fee increase to be expended by the Labor Commissioner to fund the Farm Labor Contractor Enforcement Unit and the Farm Labor Contractor License Verification Unit. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, required an applicant to provide the names and addresses of all persons who performed specified services for him or her in the previous year, in order to be issued a license to act as a farm labor contractor. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, required each employee of an applicant for licensure as a farm labor contractor to register as a farm labor contractor employee pursuant to federal law, if that registration is required under federal law. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, required an applicant for licensure as a farm labor contractor to execute a written statement attesting that the person's supervisory employees have been trained in the prevention of sexual harassment. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, also increased the amount of the surety bond that is required to be deposited with the Labor Commissioner in order to be issued a license to act as a farm labor contractor by $25,000 or $50,000 based upon the size of the person's annual payroll, and required documentation of the payroll size. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, required the bond to be conditioned upon compliance with, and payment of all damages occasioned by failure to comply with, provisions prohibiting unlawful workplace harassment. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, also authorized certain license fees in the Farmworker Remedial Account to be used to satisfy claims for damages for violations of provisions prohibiting unlawful workplace harassment, as specified. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, required the examination for licensure as a farm labor contractor to cover laws and regulations concerning sexual harassment in the workplace and authorized the Labor Commissioner to consult with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing in preparing the examination. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, increased the maximum amount the Labor Commissioner may charge for developing and administering the examination to $200. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, included laws and regulations related to workplace harassment among the laws that an applicant must not have violated during the previous year in order to have his or her license renewed without taking the examination. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, increased the requirement that an applicant for a license to act as a farm labor contractor participate in at least 8 hours of educational classes each year to 10 hours of classes, and required that those classes include at least 2 hours of sexual harassment prevention training. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, authorized the Labor Commissioner to refuse to issue or renew a farm labor contractor license until the amount of any delinquency is fully paid under provisions that make it a crime for an employer who has made withholdings from an employee's wages to willfully or with intent to defraud fail to remit the withholdings. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, required that the statement that licensees are required to have stating the rate of compensation that he or she receives from the grower and that he or she is paying to employees be provided to a current or former employee or the grower within 21 calendar days of a written request, and made a licensee who fails to comply with this requirement subject to a civil penalty of $750. SB 1087, as it passed the Senate, provided that any farm labor contractor who engages in farm labor contracting activities after his or her license has been suspended, revoked, or denied reissuance is punishable by a fine of not less than $10,000, or by imprisonment for not less than 6 months and not more than one year, or both.

The Assembly amendments delete the increase in the amount of the surety bond that is required to be deposited with the Labor Commissioner in order to be issued a license to act as a farm labor contractor. The Assembly amendments increase the requirement that an applicant for a license to act as a farm labor contractor participate in from at least 8 hours of educational classes each year to at least 9 hours of classes, and reduce the required sexual harassment prevention training to at least 1 hour.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

Senate Bill 1388, as it passed the Senate, provided that a person who agrees to purchase or who purchases a commercial sex act is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 48 hours of continuous confinement, nor more than 6 months, and by a fine of $1,000, as specified. The bill required each fine imposed and collected pursuant to that provision to be deposited in the Victim–Witness Assistance Fund to fund grants to local programs, as specified. The bill also authorized the court to order a defendant convicted of a violation of the provisions proscribing purchasing, performing, or agreeing to purchase or perform a commercial sex act, if the violation involved a minor, to pay a fine of not less than $1,000 and not more than $10,000.

The bill also authorized a court to impose a fine of not less than $5,000, or more than $20,000, against a person convicted of violating certain prohibitions against the prostitution of a minor.

The Assembly amendments instead provide that if the crime of prostitution is committed and the person solicited was a minor at the time of the offense, and if the defendant knew or should have known that the person solicited was a minor at the time of the offense, the violation is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 2 days, except as specified, and not more than one year, or by a fine not exceeding $10,000, or by both that fine and imprisonment. The Assembly amendments also increase the maximum of the fine that a court may impose against a person convicted of violating certain prohibitions against the prostitution of a minor to $25,000, and delete the $5,000 minimum amount.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1443, as it passed the Senate among other things, prohibited an elected state officer, elected officer of a local government agency, or other designated individuals from accepting gifts from a single source in a calendar year with a total value of more than $200 and authorized the Fair Political Practices Commission to increase the gift limitation amount each odd-numbered year based upon changes in the Consumer Price Index. The bill prohibited a lobbyist or lobbying firm from making a gift of any amount to these individuals.

The Assembly amendments reduce to $200 the aggregate value of gifts that create a financial interest for a public official in the gift’s donor for purposes of the prohibition against a public official making, participating in making, or in any way attempting to use the official’s position to influence a governmental decision in which the official knows or has reason to know that he or she has a financial interest. The amendments also require the Commission to adjust the gift value amount to equal the above-described limitation amount on the value of gifts from a single source in a calendar year.
